5 Daily Videos

Watch assigned YouTube videos to activate your daily ROI and 6× earning opportunity

Consistent daily engagement is key to unlocking your full earning potential with Rating Dex. Here's how your daily video watching translates into tangible benefits:

- You'll receive 5 carefully curated YouTube videos each day. Completing these videos is essential to trigger your package benefits and ensure your daily return on investment (ROI).
- Each video you watch actively contributes to your daily ROI. More importantly, consistent watching can multiply your earning potential up to 6 times, accelerating your financial growth.
- Maintaining a routine of daily video watching not only keeps your earning momentum strong but also paves the way for unlocking higher rewards and designation-based bonuses within the Rating Dex ecosystem.

25 Months Cashback

Stay consistent and receive 100% cashback cycle bonus

At Rating Dex, your dedication pays off. We guarantee a full recovery of your initial investment through our unique 25-month cashback program.

- Earn back 100% of your investment through consistent participation in our platform.
- Each package initiates a 25-month earning cycle, designed to ensure you recover your entire contribution reliably.
- Maximize your returns by continuing daily video engagement and actively participating in our referral program.
- Long-term members gain access to exclusive rewards and recognition upon successfully completing their full cashback cycle.

5% Direct Bonus

Instant referral income when you invite friends

- Earn an instant 5% bonus every time someone joins using your referral link.
- No limit — the more you refer, the more you earn instantly.
- Your referral income is credited directly to your wallet without delay.
- Help your team grow and unlock additional level-based earnings over time.

Why YouTube Engagement Matters

YouTube's view counting system ensures every interaction is authentic and valuable. A view is registered when a real user watches for at least 30 seconds, with strict AI filters preventing fake engagement.

Genuine Views Count

Real human interaction with deliberate clicks ensures advertiser trust and higher revenue potential for all participants.

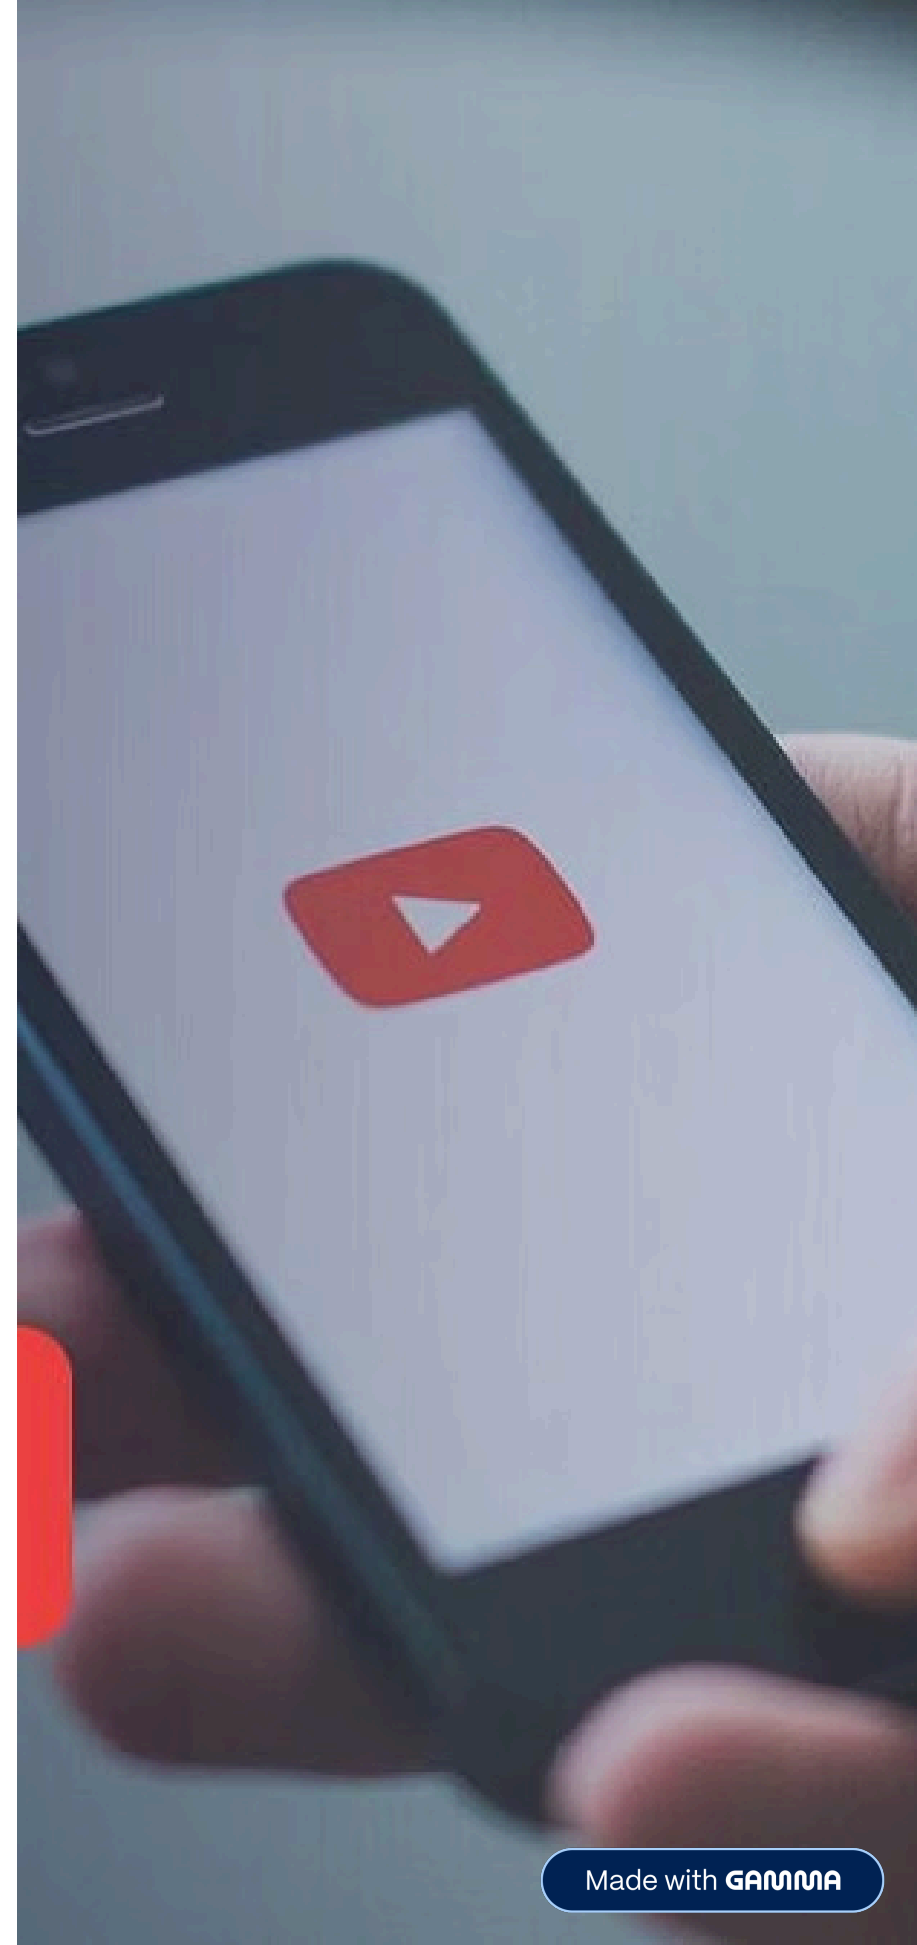

Engagement Powers Growth

Likes, comments, and shares boost video discoverability and strengthen community trust across the platform.

Quality Drives Earnings

Valid, engaged viewers generate higher ad impressions and stronger monetisation outcomes for creators and users alike.
